

Warsaw, 19 April 2017

Dear colleagues,

On behalf of the organizers, Meorient International Exhibition, Warsaw Chamber of Commerce, Polish Media Association and the TTG Polska editorial team, we would like to invite you to become a part of VI edition of CHINA HOMELIFE SHOW trade fair, to be held on June 6-8 2017 in Ptak Warsaw Expo in Nadarzyn near Warsaw.

It bears mentioning that it is the only initiative of its kind encompassing the Central and Eastern Europe, set to gather a record number of foreign participants. Among them will be 1,300 Chinese entrepreneurs and over 2,000 traders invited from among 13 European countries: Belarus, Croatia, Czech Republic, Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania, Moldavia, Russia, Romania, Slovakia, Slovenia, Ukraine and Hungary. We also expect about 7,000 domestic companies to take part in the event.

Event's agenda includes seminars and lectures on the possibilities offered by cooperation with China. Group discussions, presentations, workshops and panel discussions will be focused on economic and financial relations, as well as legal and organizational aspects of doing business with Chinese partners. They will also cover the social and cultural context of partnering with the Middle Kingdom. During the second day of the trade fair, Central and Eastern Europe Economic Congress will take place, dedicated to export and international cooperation opportunities.

Chinese exhibitors partaking in the China Homelife Show 2017 are related to following industries: textile and garments, home electronics, kitchen appliances and bathroom fixtures, furniture, lighting, home furnishings and accessories. Moreover, the China Machinex trade fair will be held for the second time, showcasing machines and devices relating to sectors such as: plastic product manufacturing, food processing and packaging, construction, agriculture, hardware and power tools, new energy.

We offer our help by means of organizing the visit of Chamber's members and other interested traders to the show. As co-hosts, we will provide, under the Hosted Buyers program, complimentary coach transportation, accommodation for two nights, catering and arrange business meetings. Please find attached an agreement proposal regarding the above mentioned.

We are eager to support entrepreneurs in establishing fruitful international trade partnerships.

We also invite Chamber representative to participate in:

- the opening ceremony, 06.06.17, 10:00 AM
- chambers of commerce and trade fair partners' meeting, 06.06.17, 7:00 PM
- Central and Eastern Europe Economic Congress, 07.06.17, 1:00 PM - 4:00 PM

We will inform you about further details of the agenda.

Yours faithfully,

Ryszard Marcińczak
Chairman of the Warsaw Chamber of Commerce

Marek Traczyk
Chairman of the Polish Media Association
