

Invitation

The Arab Women Investors Union Along with the National council for Women in cooperation with Business Women Association for Development, the Industrial Investors Syndicate and General Federation Of NGOS have the pleasure to invite you to attend the conference and exhibition

" Arab-African investment through the continuous sustainable development"

Under the auspice of the Arab League

From 13th to 17th March 2018

The event will include international exhibition, workshops and B2B meetings

The exhibition will showcase huge investment opportunities in Egypt, Africa & the Arab Region as well as presenting the investment opportunities in enormous projects that were accomplished in the last 4 years.

The exhibition will be an excellent opportunity to open new and variable export markets in different sectors ..

The conference and exhibition time table will include field visits to the biggest factories in different industrial cities around Egypt, with the participation of top-notch Arab and African businesswomen/businessmen, Representatives of civil society organizations, associations, unions, chambers of commerce and business councils with a vast international attendance.

The conference will conclude its activities with a special touristic program covering the most charming places & cities in Egypt.

On the other hand, an exhibition will be dedicated for the re-construction of Iraq and Libya with the presence of senior officials in both countries in different sectors such as (construction – real-estate investment - export & import – investment opportunities – tourism – hospital sector and hospitals development – small and medium industries).

The exhibition will be a big opportunity to present the exhibitors products & services with the participation of elite investors & decision makers.

We would like to highlight the guests of honor participation in that huge Arab-African event ( Nigeria -South Korea –Iraq - Greece – Hungary - Australia – Russia – France- Libya)

May God bless all our Arab & African countries
